

Discussion questions about sustainable living

1. What are some simple daily habits individuals can adopt to contribute to sustainable living?
2. How can reducing meat consumption positively impact both personal health and the environment?
3. Why is recycling important, and what are some creative ways to encourage it in local communities?

